CMAI Business Delegation to ITU Plenipotentiary Conference Busan, Republic of Korea,

20th – 22nd October 2014

Dear Sir,

CMAI is happy to announce delegation to ITU Plenipotentiary Conference to be held at Busan, Republic of Korea from 20th to 22nd October 2014.

The Plenipotentiary Conference is the key event at which ITU Member States decide on the future role of the organization, thereby determining the organization's ability to influence and affect the development of information and communication technologies (ICTs) worldwide.

The Plenipotentiary Conference is the top policy-making body of the ITU. Held every four years, the Conference:

- sets the Union's general policies;
- adopts four-year strategic and financial plans; and
- elects the senior management team of the organization, the members of Council, and the members of the Radio Regulations Board

Agenda of the Plenipotentiary Conference

The Plenipotentiary Conference is ITU's top policy-making body that sets the general policies of the organization for the next four years. The agenda is a standing document sufficiently broad to enable discussions and debate on many issues. It is embodied in the ITU Constitution as its Article 8. The work of the Conference is based on proposals tabled by Member States within the general framework of the agenda.
